

BRISTOL SPIRITS, PORT MORANT DEMERARA RUM 1999

This Port Morant 1999 rum is from Guyana which is the only place where you will find a double wooden pot still. Originally this legendary pot still was placed at the Port Morant Distillery but after the closing of Port Morant, the still was moved to Diamond Distillery, which is today the only distillery in Guyana.

Tasting notes:

Port Morant 1999 by Bristol Spirits has been matured in American Oak Casks while stored in cool camp in UK warehouse. It has resulted in this pale coloured rum with a firm nose of fruit and wood and a palate that shows the classic Port Morant style with a touch of stylish wood and aniseed on the finish.

Country: Guyana

Distillery: Diamond Distillery

Alcohol: 46% alc.

Age: 16 years classic rum (vintage)

