

ED. 17 LA PALMERA DURO VII

Once again the rums have travelled with Tres Hombres' ship for this 2017 edition, and this year you will find four different rum from the Canary Islands, the Dominican Republic and Barbados. This is limited edition, and the perfect collector's item for every rum-lover.

All the labels on this years bottles are made in wood and applied by hand, and the drawings on the labels are made by one of the crew members at Tres Hombres.

La Palma Duro VII is a special Tres Hombres blend, which is 7 years aged in La Palma. It is produced directly from local sugar cane on La Palma and distilled in a 80-year old wood fired copper kettle. Afterwards it has travelled by sea in 7 months in selected French white oak casks.

Bottles: 1800 pc.

Country: La Palma, Canary Islands

Distillery: Destilerias Aldea

Alcohol: 43% alc.

Age: 7 years

