

MÀXIMO XO

Subtle traces of toffee, coffee, tobacco leaf, and spices come off its scent. A large contemporary rum, aged in American and French oak barrels, but with a short rest in Pedro Ximénez barrels. It travels round, with notes of roasted oak, nuts and pure cocoa that gratify power and vitality. Persistent, penetrating, honeyed and dense finish. All these qualities makes this rum exuberant but slender and kind, very consistent and semisweet, well developed with grand enchantment.

Nose: Oak and dry roasted fruits, coffee, sweet spices, tobacco, and cacao. Very well balanced.

Palate: Wide, tasty, spiced, smoked and long; very elegant and with a grand structure.

Country: Dominican Republic

Producer: Oliver & Oliver

Alcohol: 42% alc.

Age: 12 years solera
