

PULLIMUT ED. 2019

Pullimut [puli'mud] is an infinity blend with surprising characteristics. As a rum importer and indie bottler you end up with a lot of rum, sometimes more than you can handle. Which is why we use a sherry butt barrel for being experimental and create our very own infinite blend.

Nose: Deliciously sweet with hints of marshmallows, caramel, brown sugar and candied fruits combined with an intense vanilla note. Some spicyness lingers in the back creating a beautiful contrast and complexity.

Palate: The sherry butt left a mark of ripe red fruits to the blend. The vanilla and caramel notes are present here too.

This rum is sweet and rich.
