

ENGLISH HARBOUR SMALL BATCH PORT CASK

English Harbour's founders are of Portuguese descent so naturally they wanted to revisit their roots. The casks used for finishing this extension, are extremely old, with some being older than 100yrs. Therefore, the finishing process is a tad lengthier than some of their other Finishes. The casks were sourced from the Royal Oporto Company and were used to age their Vintage Tawny Port.

Palate: Opening with warm ginger and dried prunes carrying through from the nose. The mid palate reveals hints of leather, fresh cracked black pepper and forest fruits; ending with a pleasant tobacco leaf finish.
